

2010 Coast Guard Elite Athletes of the Year

YN3 Syreeta Bromfield

YN3 Syreeta Bromfield, is stationed at PSSU Miami. YN3 Bromfield distinguished herself as one of the best female basketball players in the Armed Forces. As a member of the Navy Women's Basketball Team, she lead the team in scoring and rebounding. She was also selected to represent the U. S. Military on the All Armed Forces Basketball Team, which participated in the First CISM Women's Military World Games held in Seoul, Korea. YN3 Bromfield was selected as the fifth top player during the games and she also received the power forward award for the best player at her position.

YN3 Bromfield gave back to her community through an active involvement in the Pennsylvania's Third Annual Walk for the Wounded to help raise funds to support our nations wounded heroes and their families. She also brought her enthusiasm to the annual Children's Holiday Bash at Miami Dade College helping plant the seed in the children's mind of the importance of attending college.

LT Ken Burgess is stationed at SFLC, detached duty Oakland, CA. LT Burgess distinguished himself in the sport of running. LT Burgess was selected to the 2010 All-Navy Cross Country Team where he finished sixth-sixth at the USA Track and Field Winter Championships with elite cross country runners in the Armed Forces and throughout the United States. He was also selected to the 2010 All-Navy Marathon Team where he helped the Navy Team win second place among the armed forces at the armed forces marathon championship held in conjunction with the 2010 Marine Corps marathon. At the Marine Corps marathon he finished twenty-eight out of the 21, 948 entrants.

LT Burgess serves as President and founding member of the USCG Running Club, which is dedicated to getting his shipmates involved in running and leading a healthier lifestyle. He also recently completed his third season as coach for his local middle school cross country team.

LT Ken Burgess