SUBJ: SOLICITATION FOR 2025 COAST GUARD RESERVE POLICY BOARD
MEMBERSHIP AND AGENDA TOPICS

A. 14 U.S.C. Section 3703

B. Reserve Policy Board, COMDTINST 5725.1E

1. This ALCOAST solicits volunteers to serve on the 2025 Coast Guard Reserve Policy Board (CG RPB) and solicits submissions of policy issues to be considered by the Board. The CG RPB is mandated by REF (A), and is an important forum to ensure strategic-level matters affecting the Reserve Component are brought to the awareness of the highest levels of the Service.

2. Membership.

a. Voting membership of the CG RPB will consist of highly qualified individuals of the Reserve and Active Components.

Membership should include a diverse representation of paygrade, skills, experience, race, ethnicity, and gender.

b. To apply for Board membership, interested personnel should submit an application utilizing Appendix B. of REF (B) to ReservePolicy@uscg.mil by 31 October 2024.

3. Submissions.

a. Topic submissions must have a policy implication to be considered by the Board.

b. While topic submissions are accepted year-round, those received by 31 December 2024 will be considered during the CG RPB annual in-person convening in the first quarter of calendar year 2025. The CG RPB will schedule subsequent virtual meetings, as necessary, to review additional submissions received throughout 2025.

c. Policy issues may be submitted by the following methods:
