

1990 Coast Guard Elite Athletes of the Year

LTJG Joanna M. Collins

LTJG Joanna Collins is an Admissions Officer stationed at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut. LTJG Collins was introduced to the sport of Olympic Style Weightlifting a year ago. In March 1990, she won the Women's Connecticut State Championships by Snatching 99 pounds and Clean and Jerking 143 pounds in the 123-132 pound weight class. These lifts qualified her or the national Championships held in Michigan in May 1990, where she placed Fourth in her weight class. LTJG Collins, a novice in Olympic Style Weightlifting, has brought recognition to herself and the service through her participation in regional and national competitions. LTJG Collins was a first alternate for an invitation to the Olympic Festival. LTJG Collins is a graduate of the United States Coast Guard Academy.

PO Beasley is currently the Systems Manager for the Support Center in Portsmouth, Virginia. Petty Officer Beasley has participated extensively in Softball, all of which has come after entering active duty. Petty Officer Beasley received the Most Valuable Player Award during the 1989 Independent Softball Association World Series in addition to receiving All-American honors for his efforts in the 1989 Independent Softball Association World Series and the 1989 Amateur Softball Association Major Open National Championship. He has participated in three U.S. Slow Pitch Softball Association World Series, three Amateur Softball Association Super Open Championships, two Independent Softball Association World Series, one National Softball Association World Series, three ASA Major Open National Championships, and three USSSA Class "A" National Championships. In 1989 Petty Officer Beasley was voted the Miami Area Navy League Coast Guard Person of the Year for his contributions to the Seventh Coast Guard District.

*Photo
Not Available*

Petty Officer John R. Beasley