

Coast Guard Awards C-27J Simulator Training Contract

The Coast Guard awarded a $2.2 million contract for C-27J training simulator access to Alenia North America June 4, 2015. The simulator will increase crew familiarity and proficiency with the C-27J medium range surveillance aircraft's characteristics and emergency procedures. Crewmembers from the HC-27J Asset Project Office in Elizabeth City, North Carolina, train with the Italian Air Force 46th Brigade in an Alenia C-27J full motion simulator in Italy, where Alenia is based. U.S. Coast Guard photo.