

National Security Cutter Delivers $748 Million Of Seized Drugs Into Custody

Coast Guard Cutter Bertholf – the service’s first national security cutter – delivered more than 49,000 pounds of seized cocaine to law enforcement authorities in San Diego Nov. 19. The cocaine, valued at $748 million, was intercepted by Bertholf and other Coast Guard and international partners in 26 interdictions. U.S. Coast Guard photo by Petty Officer 1st Class Rob Simpson.