

U.S. Coast Guard Inland Tenders

Inland Tenders and U.S. MTS

The inland tenders play a key role in the Coast Guard’s support of the U.S. Marine Transportation System (MTS). In addition to servicing aids to navigation (ATON), these tenders provide a federal presence to conduct ports, waterways and coastal security; search and rescue; marine safety; and marine environmental protection missions.

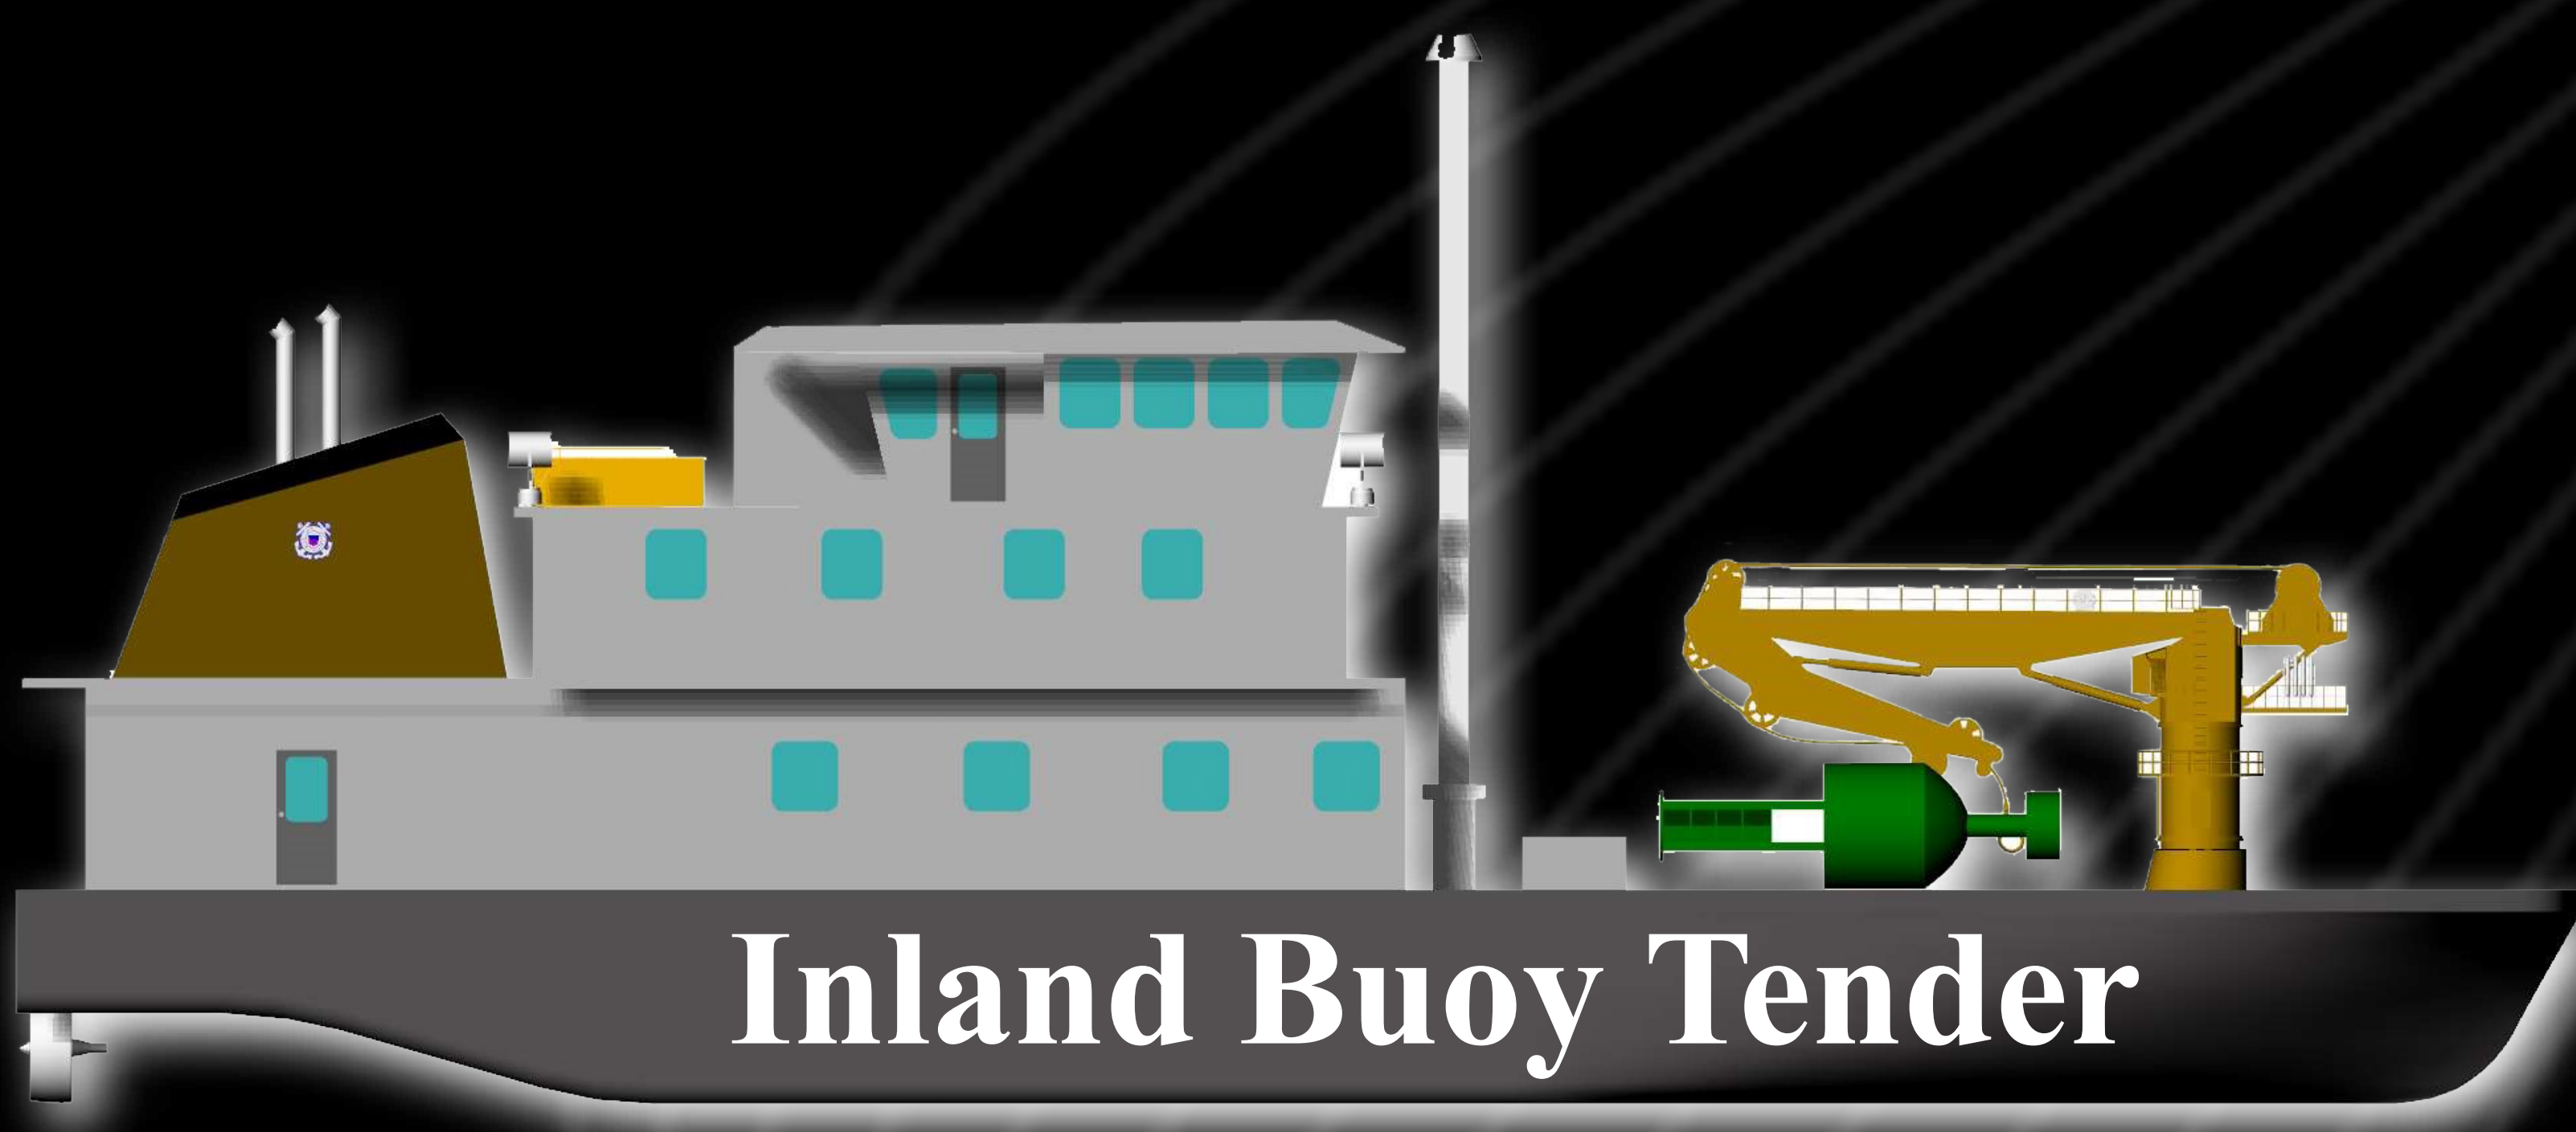

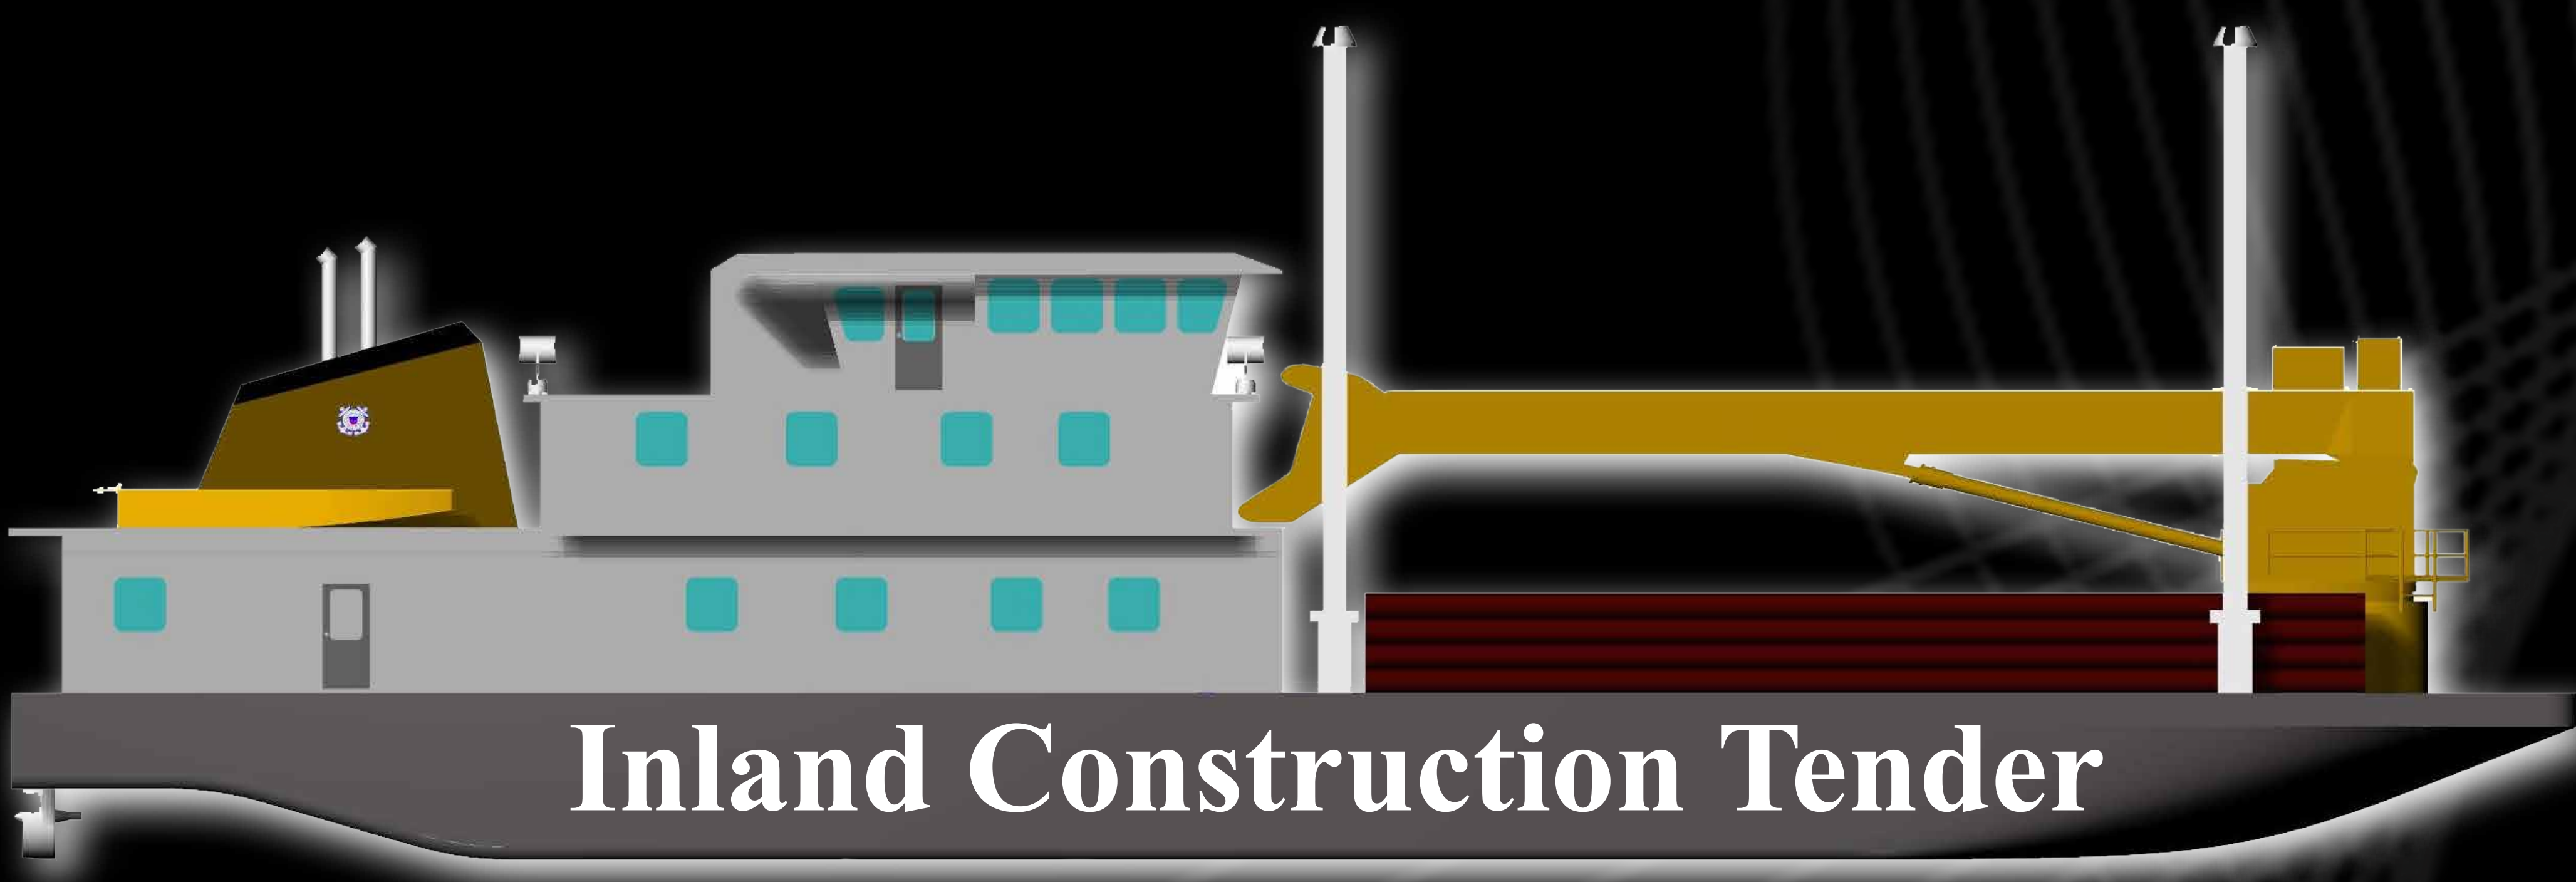

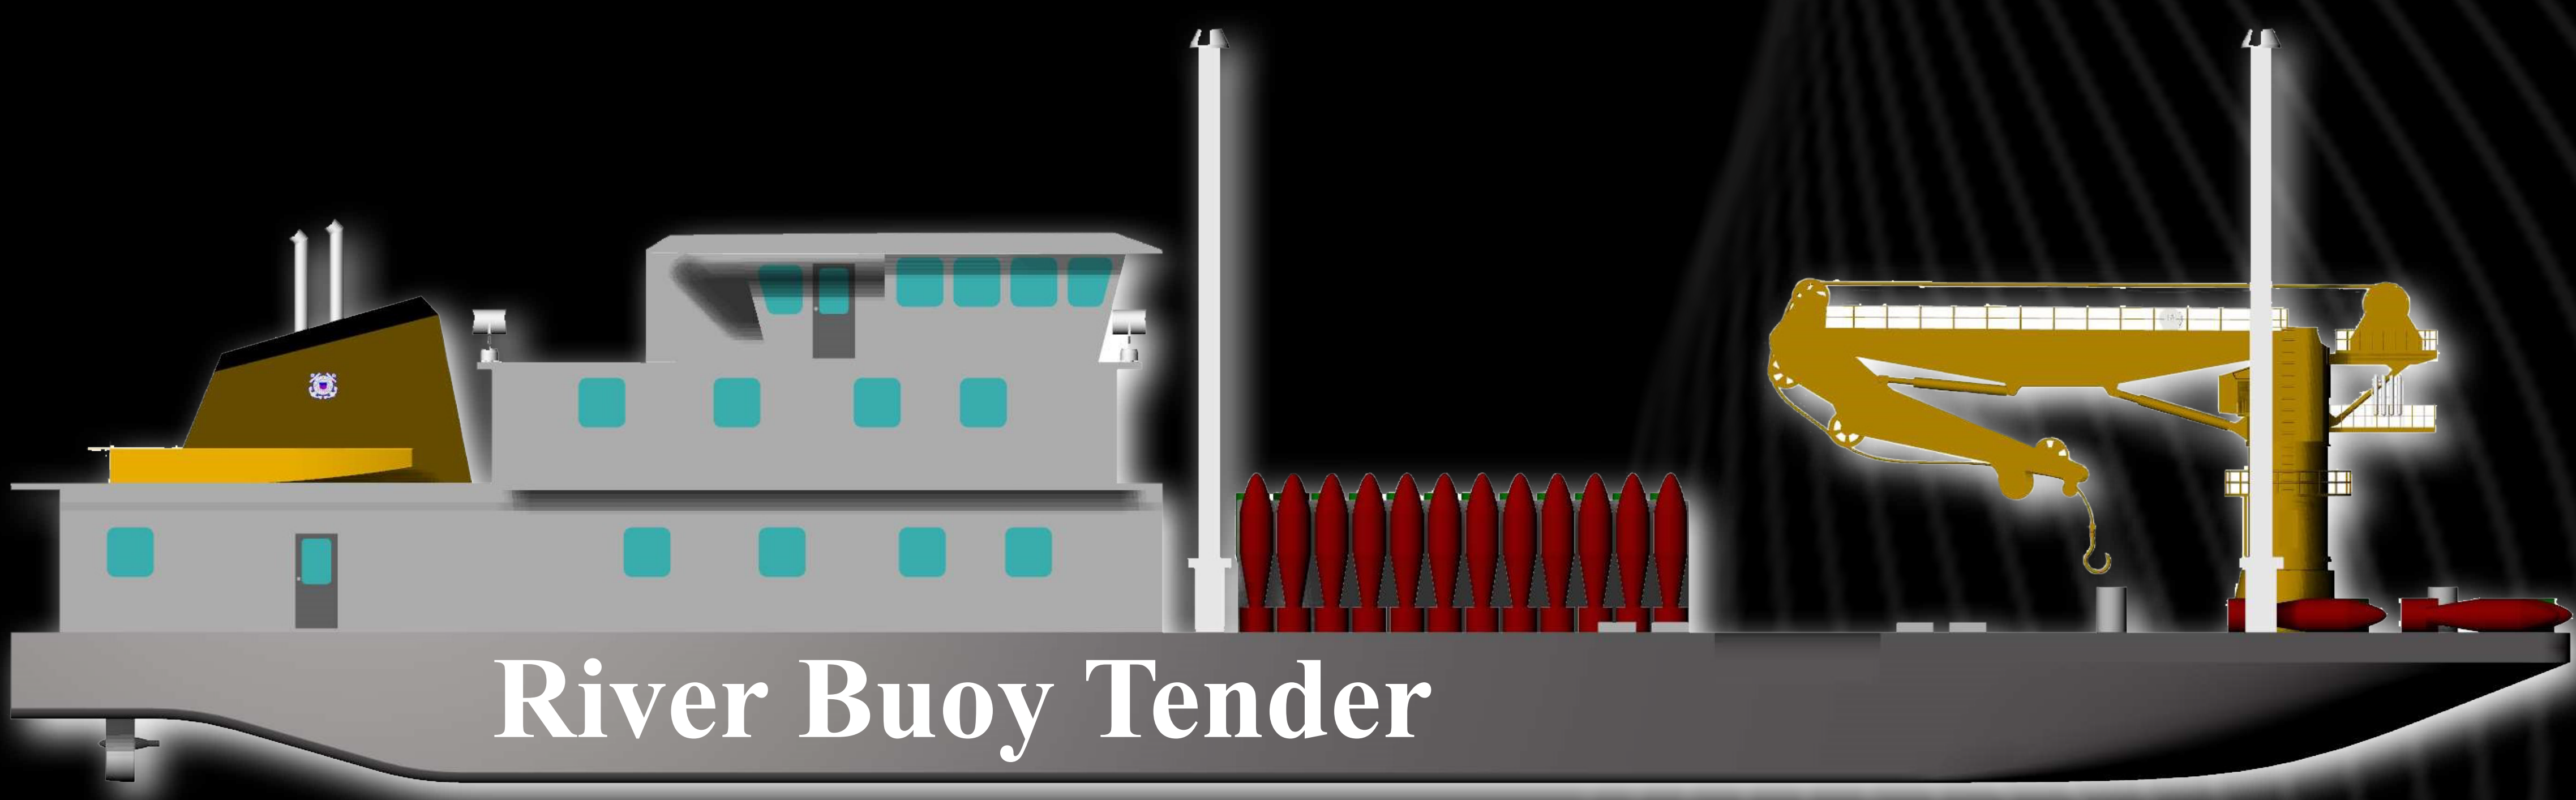

U.S. MTS by the Numbers

Annual Economic Value

Notional Waterways Commerce Cutter Indicative Designs

Current Inland Tender Distribution

