

Christopher R. Fly Command Master Chief US Coast Guard Base Alameda

Master Chief Chris Fly assumed the duties and responsibilities as the Command Master Chief for Base Alameda, CA on July 2nd, 2021 after serving as the CMC for the Maritime Force Protection Unit Bangor, WA since 2018.

Master Chief Fly is a native of Indianapolis, Indiana. He enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard in September 1993. After completing Basic Recruit Training at TRACEN Cape May, NJ, he was assigned to COMMSTA New Orleans, LA. Master Chief Fly completed Electronics Technician "A" School in September 1995 with a follow-on tour on CGC TAMPA (WMEC 902) in Portsmouth, VA. After a change in rating, he attended Health Services Technician "A" School in September 1999. Master Chief Fly's HS assignments include: ISC Kodiak, AK; TRACEN Yorktown, VA; CGC STEADFAST (WMEC 623), Astoria, OR; HSWL Safety and Environmental Health, San Diego, CA; Medical Administration Advanced Education Program, San Diego, CA; and Base Kodiak, AK. During these assignments, Master Chief Fly has served as Senior IDHS D17, Safety Technician, IDHS, and Administration and Clinic LPO.

Master Chief Fly is a 2007 graduate of the Chief Petty Officer's Academy, class 142 and a 2013 graduate of the Senior Enlisted Leadership Course. He completed his Bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix in 2012 and a Masters in HR and Organizational Development from the University of Louisville in 2020. His military awards include the CG Commendation Medal; CG Achievement Medal, Commandant's Letter of Commendation, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, and numerous other individual and unit awards.

He is married to the former Sherri Hertel of Rohnert Park, California and has two daughters, Megan and Lauren.