Sponsorship is very important to our members, families and to our mission.
Support our personnel. Support our mission.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR KODIAK RELOCATION ASSISTANCE MANAGER

Congratulations!

You have been assigned to sponsor a new team member of our Coast Community. I cannot overemphasize the importance of your role in the relocation process as a sponsor and the need sponsor the entire family in the process. I look forward to helping you in your role as a new sponsor. Please make sure that the Active Duty Member you are sponsoring is providing the relocation handbooks received via e-mail to the family!

You represent the first glimpse a new team member, and his or her family, will have of your unit and Kodiak. The impression you make will be a lasting one, and it is critical that it reflects the care and concern all members of our team deserve.

I remind you to keep in mind that you may be sponsoring an individual (or family) on their first overseas tour or even a new member to Team Coast Guard. These individuals most of all need your help to have a successful relocation experience. I encourage you to do your very best to make this move the smoothest ever for our new team member and to use all of the resources available.

Sponsorship is a vital component of the mobile military lifestyle. Relocating is a very stressful experience for both the service member and their family. Your role as a Sponsor will help smooth the way for a quick and efficient transition to the new location and the new job.

The following Sponsorship Duties Checklist will help you successfully execute your duties as a Sponsor. Please keep it handy and review it often as you work through the sponsorship process. The checklist is divided into Pre-Arrival, Arrival, and Post-Arrival tasks.

Pre-Arrival

- Contact the newcomer via phone or email to say hello and explain the sponsorship process.
- Ask questions about the newcomer needs and family needs.
- Confirm member has received both Customer Service Handbook and Relocation Handbook by e-mail. If not help them contact POC's to request handbooks or mailed package.
- Compose and send a welcome letter (e-mail) based on the newcomer's needs and your unit's procedures.
- Assist with temporary lodging arrangements, mailing address or other details and communicate details by personal email or phone.
- Brief supervisor about sponsorship process details and if there are any problems encountered.
- Offer assistance with off base housing information and available rentals if needed.

Arrival

- Personally meet your newcomer upon arrival or arrange for someone to meet them due to duty commitments.
- Make sure that you directly email and/or phone them to tell them who will be meeting them upon arrival. Providing suggestions on transportation or directions from airport/ferry terminal.
- Make sure you bring transportation that will accommodate the entire family as well as pets when meeting newcomer.
- Make sure that the newcomer is met by a friendly face.
- Personally take the newcomer to lodging.
- Introduce the newcomer to his/her new unit, supervisor, key personnel and fellow co-workers.
- Show the newcomer/family around the base facilities such as commissary, MWR, chapel, Work Life and Housing.
- Give the newcomer a community tour.
- Accompany the newcomer through in-processing and check-in procedures.

Post-Arrival

- Offer assistance with vehicle registration.
- Offer assistance with transportation needs.
- Offer help getting settled into the newcomer's new home.
- Ensure that family has contact information for schools, medical care, child care, and other resources.
- If member is being deployed soon after arrival make sure spouse has proper power of attorney to handle details during absence of active duty member.

Sponsorship is a vital component impacting unit and family readiness.

The following Needs Assessment Checklist will help you successfully execute your duties as a Sponsor. Please use it as a guide when contacting your newcomer to collect the information you will need to help the family with a successful move.
