IF ITS AN EMERGENCY: JUST DIAL 9-1-1

WHEN SHOULD YOU CALL 9-1-1?

What is an emergency?

An emergency is something that must be stopped, prevented, or dealt with at the immediate time because someone's life or physical well being, or property is being threatened. (NOTE: Loud music complaints, burglaries, barking/loose dog complaints, oil spills, etc, should not be called in on 9-1-1.)

WHAT WILL THE DISPATCHER ASK WHEN YOU CALL 9-1-1?

All callers are asked the following questions which help the dispatcher prioritize your call and will provide the responding officers with information before their arrival.

QUESTIONS WE'LL ASK

1. What is your name and phone number? We may need to call you back. What is the location?
2. What is the nature of the problem? Is fire, police, or medical response needed?

Is anyone injured?

Give basic description of what occurred.

3. When did it happen? Is it occurring now? When did it occur?
4. Give a suspect description.

DID THE PERSON HAVE A WEAPON?

Tell about the person's:

Sex, race, age height, clothing, hair color, eye color, facial hair, eye glasses, hat, date of birth, clothing description.

5. Give a vehicle description. Think of the word CYMBAL.

C – Color

Y – Year

M – Make

B – Body Style

A – And

L – License Number

Also describe any dents or other identifying features and the direction of travel.
