

MECM Todd Walters
Command Master Chief
US Coast Guard Base Kodiak

Master Chief Todd Walters assumed the role as the Senior Enlisted Leadership Course School Chief and Command Master Chief at the Leadership Development Center in July 2022. Previous assignments include Chief of Police Coast Guard Academy, Command Master Chief Sector Guam, School Chief ME "A" School, Mobile Training Branch-International Division Yorktown, VA, MFPU Bangor, WA, MSU Valdez, AK, Sector Northern New England, MSU Huntington, WV, USCG STA Jonesport, ME.

Master Chief Walters holds an Associates of Arts Degree in General Studies from University of Phoenix and is a graduate of the Senior Enlisted Leadership Course 46. He is currently attending Thomas Edison State College for a Bachelor of Science in Homeland Security & Emergency Preparedness. Originally from Babylon, New York, Master Chief enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in September 2000. He also previously served in the U.S. Navy from 1994-1998 as a Gas Turbine Mechanic onboard USS Merrill DD-976. His personal awards include Coast Guard Commendation Medals, Coast Guard Achievement Medals, as well as various other personal and unit level awards. Master Chief has also earned his permanent Boat Forces and Marine Safety insignias.

Master Chief Walters is the proud father of three children, Kira, Colin, and Finnegan ages 24, 21, and 9 and considers fatherhood the most meaningful role he's ever held. An avid outdoorsman, he enjoys hiking, hunting, fishing, and exploring the backcountry, finding peace and perspective in nature. A devoted New York Yankees fan, he brings the same passion, resilience, and team spirit to his professional life that he finds in the game.