Reporting: Stop by the MAA Office and we will complete check-in paperwork. Please make sure you have a copy of your orders. Once the paperwork is completed, the MAA staff will give you a tour of the barracks, and assign you a mailbox.

*It is strongly recommended that you do not have mail sent until you have a mailbox assigned.

Reporting After-Hours: You will be checking in with the Duty Master at Arms, which is located in Barracks 7. The room that they assign you is only temporary, you will be required to check in at 0830 the next business day for a permanent room assignment, if you are unable to report at that time, please let the MAA office know prior to your arrival.

Check-Out: Please notify the MAA Staff upon receipt of orders and for current guidance on checking out of the Barracks. Check-out Inspections shall be scheduled NLT 45 prior to departure.
