

EMCS Rafael Torres
BASE San Juan
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Senior Chief Torres assumed the duties of Command Senior Enlisted of BASE San Juan on June 4, 2024. EMCS' roles include promote balance between workforce needs and command goals, be accessible to crewmembers and their dependents and encourage communications affecting personnel and mission accomplishment. In addition, proactively network with other resources to resolve workforce related problems and concerns.

Senior Chief Torres was born in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. EMCS enlisted in the US Coast Guard in March of 2004. EMCS' duty assignments include, BASE Borinquen, BASE DET Borinquen, CGC CHASE, CGC RELIANCE, BASE DET Borinquen, SECTOR SAN JUAN, CGC FRANK DREW, MAT SAN JUAN, SECTOR BOSTON ENGINEERING, EM "A" SCHOOL and CGC MORRO BAY.

Senior Chief Torres completed CCTI in November of 2019, graduated from Chief Petty Officer Academy in January of 2020 and Senior Enlisted Leadership Course in March of 2023. EMCS Torres holds a Degree on Avionics Technician.

Senior Chief Torres is married to Glarimar Vazquez Fernandez and is father of two amazing daughters, Mariliz and Mariel. Senior Chief's military awards include the CG Commendation Medal (2), CG Achievement Medal (5), and Letter of Commendation Ribbon Bar (2) and proudly wears the Cutterman insignia.

