

COMMANDER DIANNA D. GARFIELD
Commanding Officer
U. S. Coast Guard Base San Juan

Commander Garfield is currently serving as the Base San Juan Commanding Officer. Her previous assignments include serving as the Department Head and Program Chair of the Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering Department at the United States Coast Guard Academy, the Industrial Manager at Base Ketchikan, the Engineer Officer on the Coast Guard Cutter (USCGC) ACTIVE, a Port Engineer for the Medium Endurance Cutter Product Line, and a Student Engineer on USCGC POLAR SEA.

Commander Garfield holds a Master of Science in Industrial Engineering from the University of Washington, a Master of Business Administration in Sustainable Systems from the Bainbridge Graduate Institute, and a Bachelor of Science in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering from the U. S. Coast Guard Academy. She also holds a Master Certificate in Sustainable Food Systems and a 200hr yoga instructor certification.

Commander Garfield grew up in Dartmouth and Cuttyhunk, Massachusetts. She is married, her husband is from Ballard, Washington. They have a son, Oliver, and a dog, Luna. The family can generally be found outside, preferably on the water, or sharing food with friends.